NEW COLLECTION

Autumn/18

The middle of the holidays is the best time to refresh the autumn wardrobe according to the new autumn trends. Brand designers decided to bet on clear in form and multicolor bold stripes as the highlight of the most recent collection. The pattern appears on shirts, dresses and skirts. When set with lacquered hip bag or yellow sweater, they give an effect of sporty elegance in the city. Outfits are additionally defined by bold materials and cuts; the range of options includes laced black jeans or pants with button-down legs with side stripes. The collection is complemented by a line of convenient accessories, among which such items as backpacks and over-the-ankle ankle boots can be found. Gauzy scarf and large round earrings add a touch of lightness to the presented outfits.

In the early autumn MOHITO collection there were also propositions of boho outfits with rock vibe, in which burgundy-and-pink check was set with floral pattern and sensual lace. Floral accents appear not only as a print on dresses, but also as jaquard cloth in sweaters or as an embroidery. The collection is complemented with cozy gray semi-turtlenecks and trendy accessories, like cascade necklaces, striped flat cap or belts with decorative buckle. Denim jacket with furry collar and shimmering rhinestones and denim bell-bottoms gives the retro vibe to the collection.
